

Stations that use public airwaves must give equal time to opposing candidates, according to law. Therefore, Pappas stations are in violation of the law and must change this inequity.